Hi, Mum and Dad,

We are now in Great Britain, our final destination. The weather is fine today. It's quite w _____, about 22 °C. There are some c _____ in the sky and the s _____ is shining too. It is always w _____ here because it is close to the sea. This kind of weather is not very common for this place. They say that the w _____ changes all the time. It often r _____, which is good for their gardens, they say. An umbrella and a raincoat are very useful here. It is also true that it doesn't often s _____ in winter and it can be so f _____ that you can't see a metre in front of you.

What's the weather like at home? I miss our weather. It's summer time and I am sure it is s _____ and h _____.

See you soon,

Dani
