

PRESENT SIMPLE AND ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY

- We use Present Simple to talk about actions we usually do.
- Also use it for routines and things we normally/frequently do.

Formation:

+ SUBJECT+(VERB-S)+COMPLEM.

✗ SUBJECT + DON'T/DOESN'T + VERB+ COMPLEMENTS

We usually use Adverbs of Frequency with Present Simple tense. They often go before the verb. Except the verb BE where they go after.

The main ones are: Always, Usually, Often, Sometimes, Seldom, Hardly Ever and Never Present Simple can also go with time expressions: every (and their compounds), once, twice, three times ...

1. Make these positive sentences negative and interrogative. Napiši nikalne in vprašalne povedi.

Alex usually plays football at the playground.

My best friend and I often go running on Saturdays.

Susan and Gabriella always go to the cinema together.

Steve and Ann never visit their granny on Fridays.

Sue and Polly hardly ever go on holiday in Summer.

Marcus plays computer games every day. He never stops!

2 Make sentences using the Present Simple tense and the Frequency Adverbs. Zapiši povedi, postavi prislove na pravo mesto.

do the homework/Maria/never/at the weekend.

play football/every day/?/do/Zack and Cody your English teacher/does/speak/Chinese?

don't visit/my grandparents/We/on Mondays.

3. Do you remember how to express likes, dislikes ...? Write sentences. (like, don't like + -ing)

I _____ (☺☺☺ /study Maths.)

He _____ (∅ ∅ ∅ /teach Spanish)

They _____ (∅ / play music)

Maria _____ (☺☺ / to listen to music)
